Intern work areas: Clerical Research Errands Organizing

Please explain the work that will be required of the intern: Our Internships are tailored to the individual. We have a opportunities to learn about field organizing, voter research, fundraising and event organizing. Our goal is to help interns get the most of their experience with us so they can go on and help change their world

Will there be opportunities for the intern to observe:

Internal strategy sessions? Legislative sessions? Committee hearings?

Is the intern expected to work evenings and weekends? If so, please explain. A lot of our events take place at night or on weekends. We highly encourage Interns to work these events because it is a great place to learn the ropes and network but they are not required.

Do you have any suggestions for the applicants? (Please use additional pages if necessary)

Be honest and upfront about what you want out of this internship and we will be able to provide you with the best experience for you. It's ok to not know exactly what you want to do or learn about just come ready to be open minded and try different things until you find what brings you the most joy.
