Report the Incident to Police

You can report the incident to the police by calling one of the numbers at the right. Your decision to report to the police will not affect your ability to file a complaint through the University's procedures, which are independent of the criminal process.

HOW TO CONTACT THE POLICE

- Emergency – Dial 911
- Rowan University Department of Public Safety: 856-256-4922
- Glassboro Police Department - 856-881-1500

SEEK PROTECTIVE SERVICES

You may pursue either or both options:

The Title IX Office can assist with a variety of measures including a no contact order, academic support, and housing accommodations whether or not there is a formal complaint filed. <http://www.rowan.edu/equity/titleix/> or call 856-256-5830 or 856-256-5831 for more information

Protective Order: CPO, sometimes also referred to as a temporary restraining order (TPO), is a legal document that bars an individual from certain types of contact with the person who is awarded the order. A violation can result in criminal charges. Public Safety can provide information and support you through this process.

REPORTING OPTIONS

You may pursue either, both or none of these options. You are not required to file a report immediately; however, it is important to preserve any evidence of the incident. Detailed information about your reporting options is available at <http://www.rowan.edu/equity/titleix/>

INSTITUTE COMPLAINT

You may file a complaint with the University by contacting the Title IX Office. The complaint is governed by the University Sexual Harassment and Misconduct Policy. Complaints of any violation to Title IX will be investigated and addressed.

For Title IX complaints concerning employees you may contact: Bindu Jayne; Assistant Vice President of Equity & Diversity & Title IX Coordinator; 256 Bunce Hall, Glassboro Campus 856-256-5830 jayneb@rowan.edu

For Title IX complaints concerning students you may contact: Nyssa Taylor Title IX Manager, Office of Equity and Diversity; 256 Bunce Hall, Glassboro Campus 856-256-5831 taylorny@rowan.edu

CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

You are not required to file a criminal complaint. If you choose to, Rowan will provide you with support throughout the process. You may file a criminal complaint by contacting the police.

THE UNIVERSITY'S RESPONSE

Rowan is committed to responding to sexual misconduct and is required by federal law to investigate all allegations and take any remedial action deemed necessary to preserve your safety and that of the community, whether or not you wish to make a formal complaint. However, in planning any response, the wishes of the reporting student are given full consideration. You may receive assistance and support without disclosing details of the incident.
