

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

If you experience any form of sexual misconduct, there are many services available for you to obtain information and support to ensure your safety and emotional and physical health, as well as a number of ways you can report the incident

WHAT IS SEXUAL MISCONDUCT?

Sexual misconduct as an umbrella term to include:

- Sexual assault
- Sexual harassment
- Interpersonal violence (dating/domestic violence)
- Stalking
- Sexual Exploitation

Please refer to the Rowan Student Sexual Misconduct and Harassment Policy. For more information and resources go to <http://www.rowan.edu/equity/titleix/>

OPTIONS AFTER INCIDENT

THERE ARE NO TIME LIMITS TO USING ANY RESOURCE

You can get support if something happened days, weeks, months or even years ago

Seek Confidential Crisis Counseling

There are a number of resources you may turn to for confidential advice, support, and information after something happens. Confidential means that the counselor or health professional will not report what happened without your permission.

ROWAN RESOURCES

- Counseling and Psychological Services Center, Winans Hall: 856-256-4222
- Counselors are available Monday-Friday during regular office hours for walk-ins.
- After regular business hours, a counselor is available for emergencies through Public Safety: call 856-256-4911 and ask to speak to the Counselor on Call.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

Report the Incident to Police

You can report the incident to the police by calling one of the numbers at the right. Your decision to report to the police will not affect your ability to file a complaint through the University's procedures, which are independent of the criminal process.

HOW TO CONTACT THE POLICE

- Emergency – Dial 911
- Rowan University Department of Public Safety: 856-256-4922
- Glassboro Police Department - 856-881-1500

SEEK PROTECTIVE SERVICES

You may pursue either or both options if you choose:

The Office of Student Equity and Compliance, Dean of Students, and Office of Residential Learning can assist with measures including a no contact order, academic support, and housing accommodations whether or not there is a formal complaint filed. rowan/titleix or call 856-256-5830 or 856-256-5831 for more information

Protective Order: CPO, sometimes also referred to as a temporary restraining order (TPO), is a legal document that bars an individual from certain types of contact with the person who is awarded the order. A violation can result in criminal charges. Public Safety can provide information and support you through this process.

REPORTING OPTIONS

You may pursue either, both or none of these options. You are not required to file a report immediately; however, it is important to preserve any evidence of the incident. Detailed reporting options are available at rowan/titleix

INSTITUTE COMPLAINT

You may file a complaint with the University by contacting the Office of Student Equity and Compliance. The complaint is governed by the University Sexual Harassment and Misconduct Policy. Complaints of any violation to Title IX will be investigated and addressed.

For Title IX complaints you may contact: Located at the Glassboro Campus, Savitz Hall, Rm 203, Monise Princilus, Title IX Coordinator, 856-256-5440, princilus@rowan.edu, or Margie Viggiano at 856-256-4294, viggianom@rowan.edu .

CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

You are not required to file a criminal complaint. If you choose to, Rowan will provide you with support throughout the process. You may file a criminal complaint by contacting the police.

THE UNIVERSITY'S RESPONSE

Rowan University is committed to responding to sexual misconduct and is required by Federal Law to investigate all allegations and take any remedial action deemed necessary to preserve your safety and that of the community, whether or not you wish to make a formal complaint. However, in planning any response, the wishes of the reporting student are given full consideration. You may receive assistance and support without disclosing details of the incident. See the below clarification of the confidentiality levels of many campus resources.
