Inspira Health Systems has purchased 100 acres from Rowan University to build their new in-patient hospital, urgent care, and health care complex. Plans are also in place for a Rowan cooperative medical school teaching environment to be included in the facility. Plans for the new facility include a comprehensive cancer center, urgent care; outpatient imaging and rehabilitation; numerous specialty centers, cardiac testing, digestive health and urgent wound care.