

Frequently Asked Questions

What will happen with my current jobs in Technomedia?

Any jobs previously posted or currently active in Technomedia will stay in Technomedia until their completion. The Technomedia URL to the job posting will continue to be active and new applicants can access the posting through the HR careersite as well.

Will hourly employees be requested through this system?

No. Hourly employees will continue to be processed on the Hourly Request Form.

What about current adjunct postings?

Adjunct postings will continue to be live in Technomedia. In late fall, a notification will be sent to all adjunct applicants asking them to reapply in PageUp. This will refresh the pools and bring the information over to the PageUp system. Departments will be notified prior to this transition.

Additional FAQs will be added as they are identified.
