

About

The English Language Program (ELP) at Rowan University is a university intensive academic-English program for international and local resident students, and the goal is to prepare students for university success.

This program has had a history of over 50 years helping students from non-English speaking countries all over the world and have had great careers in the U.S. and other countries.

We offer an on-campus program, which is 18 hours per week. The on-campus program is held on the main Rowan University Campus in Glassboro, New Jersey.

On-Campus Program

English Language Program

Academics

The ELP has five (5) levels:

- Beginner
- Low-Intermediate
- Intermediate
- High Intermediate
- Advanced

After taking the placement test, you will be placed in the level that best suits your knowledge of the English language.

If you successfully complete Advanced Level with a minimum GPA of 3.0, you do not need to take a language test for university admissions into undergraduate and graduate degrees of study.

Tuition

Rowan ELP has the most affordable tuition for an English Language Program in the region.

Tuition for 7-week on-campus ELP: $1,375
Tuition for 14-week on-campus ELP: $2,750

*Textbooks are included in the cost of tuition.
Please note that tuition is subject to change.
