

About

The English Language Program (ELP) at Rowan University is a university intensive academic-English program for international and local resident students, and the goal is to prepare students for university success.

This program has had a history of over 50 years helping students from non-English speaking countries all over the world and have had great careers in the U.S. and other countries.

We offer two programs: On-Campus Morning Program and Online Evening Program. Morning Program is 18 hours per week, and Evening Program is 15 hours per week. Online classes are recorded for students who cannot join live online classes.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROGRAM

Academics

The ELP has five (5) levels:

- Beginner
- Low-Intermediate
- Intermediate
- High Intermediate
- Advanced

After taking the placement test, you will be placed in the level that best suits your knowledge of the English language.

If you successfully complete Advanced Level with a minimum GPA of 3.0, you do not need to take a language test for university admissions into undergraduate and graduate degrees of study.
