

A WORLD-CLASS HOMESTAY PROGRAM FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The American Homestay Network (AHN) is an affiliate homestay provider of Rowan University. AHN's flexible homestay packages are designed to welcome international students to the local community and provide a home away from home as students pursue their education in the United States.

Hosts are carefully selected to ensure students are placed in environments that are not only safe and comfortable, but also warm and welcoming, where they can enjoy a shared cultural experience in a local home. Students will be matched with a host family close to campus according to AHN's world-class standards of best practice

THE BEST HOMESTAY PROGRAM IN AMERICA

AHN's quality homestay program includes an extensive list of features that lay the foundation for academic success while ensuring students are safe, happy and well cared for. These include:
