Information About Providing Financial Support

An international student must be able to prove adequate resources to cover the minimum annual expenses for the entire program of study at Rowan University. To receive the I-20, and subsequently be able to apply for an F1 visa, you are required to show our office evidence that funds are available to cover one year's minimum expenses.

What is a sponsor? A sponsor is your source of financial support while you are studying in the U.S.

- A sponsor may be one or more family members, friends, or organizations.
- You can also sponsor yourself completely or partially.

Free room and board counts as financial support: A person who is giving you free room and board may also be considered a sponsor. This sponsor must submit a notarized "Sponsor's Affidavit of Free Room and Board."

Documents Required to Prove Financial Support:

- Bank Statement:
The statement must be in the sponsor's name, must be in English, and within 6 months of your submitting the I-20 request

The following will NOT be accepted:

- Funds from investments and property
- Letters that do not reflect the actual USD numerical balance in the account(s).
- Letters stating 'enough' or 'sufficient' funds are available will not be accepted as evidence of financial support.

Rowan University must be sure that you have sufficient financial support to cover the cost of one year's minimum expenses.
