

Title IX Sexual Harassment/Sexual Assault Policy and Reporting

Rowan University and its faculty and staff are committed to assuring a safe and productive educational environment for all students. Title IX makes it clear that sexual misconduct and harassment based on sex and gender is a Civil Rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and support applied to offenses against protected categories such as race, national origin, etc.

University faculty and staff members must report any sexual misconduct or harassment to the University's Title IX Coordinator to provide the appropriate resources and support options. Please report any incidents of sexual misconduct and harassment by clicking HERE. What this means is that as your professor, I am required to report any incidents of sexual misconduct and harassment that are directly reported to me or of which I am somehow made aware. See Rowan's Title IX Sexual Harassment/Sexual Assault Policy and Student Sexual Misconduct and Harassment Policy.

- Pregnant & Parenting Students

Rowan University does not discriminate against any student based on pregnancy or related conditions. If you are a pregnant or parenting student, please contact the Title IX Coordinator for additional support and services including but not limited to academic support and accommodations.
