BROWN SCHEDULE - Commuters

Fall Orientation & Welcome Week Program Overview

During your fall orientation program, you will have the opportunity to explore Rowan University. The events prior to classes are part of Welcome Week—where you will meet other new students and get an overview of the many facilities, programs, and services available on campus. Orientation continues throughout the first six weeks of the fall term where you will have the opportunity to choose workshops that match your interests. We know that your transition to college is an ongoing process, so we will continue to provide opportunities to get involved in your new community. Welcome to Rowan University, and we look forward to seeing you at these campus events!
