Rowan University
201 Mullica Hill Road
Glassboro, NJ 08028-1700

SupplyWorks would like to introduce Rowan University to our full product offering available through our contracts established under the U.S. Communities Purchasing Alliance. As a member of U.S. Communities, Rowan University can receive discounted pricing on our full product line of over 90,000 items in product categories of janitorial, custodial, and MRO (Maintenance, Repair & Operations) items.

SupplyWorks has been a strategic partner to the University for many years, providing custodial supplies and cleaning equipment. As a division of The Home Depot SupplyWorks offers additional products under several other product categories that can meet the needs of various departments at the University. From HVAC, Plumbing, Electrical, Painting Supplies and much more, we can offer next day delivery for any in stock merchandise.

We are extremely excited about collaborating with Rowan University on this expanded offering and we look forward to meeting your needs in today's ever-demanding workspace with discounted pricing, and streamlined ordering options. Users will be able to access our website showing all contracted items with pricing, stock availability and many other great features. Below is the customized link for our website showing all of our contracted items for Rowan University.
