Online Withdrawal Forms

Withdrawing from courses for a semester is now fully automated. Once the student submits the form, courses will be automatically withdrawn, and a last date of attendance will be recorded as the form submission date. Although the withdrawn course will be immediately updated on the student’s record, it will not be visible on the academic transcript until the following day.

Students may access the withdrawal form through Self Service Banner, by clicking on the link “Withdraw from individual or all courses for a semester”:

Registration

- Manage your registration using new web interface
- Instructional Videos for New Registration Interface and Conditional Add/Drop
- Withdraw from individual or all courses for semester
- Withdraw from the University

Please note, this form cannot be used by SOM or Cooper. University withdrawals can be processed by the link “Withdraw from the University” (pictured above), which still go through Maxient, and is NOT automated.
Below is a screenshot of the form.

Course Withdrawal Form

Policy & process summary: (click to expand/collapse)

Before submitting this form, please consider the following:
- It is recommended that you have a discussion with your advisor or instructor regarding other options beside withdrawal.
- Upon withdrawal, the course will remain on your transcript, with no impact on GPA, but you will be responsible to pay for all tuition and fees associated with the course.
- As an athlete, international student, military, University Housing resident, or financial aid recipient, there may be financial consequences to your decision to withdraw. It is recommended that you discuss your decision with the appropriate offices.
- If you are withdrawing from all of your courses and are not sure you will return to the University, you may consider taking a leave of absence. Visit go.rowan.edu/leaveofabsence.
- If your courses are highlighted in red, they are not within the withdrawal period.
- School of Osteopathic Medicine and Cooper Medical Schools are not eligible to use withdraw through this form.
