Additional notes:

- Christine Larsen-Britt (larsen-britt@rowan.edu; 856-256-4068) is the Program Advisor.
- The B.A. in Modern Languages & Linguistics (MLL) consists of 39 SH (13 classes, each of 3 SH). All MLL courses must be passed with a minimum grade of “C-” and no courses may be taken P/NC.
- Students may transfer in coursework from other institutions and from study abroad.
- Students with existing proficiency in a language may participate in a placement exam/interview in order to skip levels. A placement exam is available for Spanish and placement interviews are available for all other languages included in the program.
- Students may earn credits for courses skipped through the Authorization for Credit by Examination process (students are charged a $75 processing fee plus $10 per credit, paid to the Registrar’s Office).
- Advanced Placement (AP) credits and CLEP Exam credits may also be applied in fulfillment of program requirements.
- As an exit requirement, all students will be required to take Avant Assessment’s STAMP 4S or STAMP as a final measure of language proficiency in the Advanced-level language chosen for the major. Please note that Spanish is the only Advanced Language option that can be completed entirely on Rowan’s campus.
