Resolution on Lecturers

Although Human Resources considers Lecturers to be Professional Staff, for the purposes of the Senate they will be considered faculty and will have the following rights:

1. They will be counted as faculty members of the departments in which they serve, and will count toward the apportioning of Senators.
2. They can vote for and serve as the Senators who represent their departments.
3. They can vote for and serve as at-large Senators.
4. They can vote for their Department Chairs. However, they cannot serve as Department Chair.
