

Academic Advising Syllabus

Mission: University Advising Services (UAS) is committed to creating a collaborative, learning-centered environment to engage students in the development and implementation of meaningful educational goals, academic planning, and access to University resources and services while providing support to achieve lifelong educational, personal and career goals.

Students will work with their advisor to meet the following learning outcomes:

1. Student understands their role and responsibility in an effective academic advising relationship
2. Student understands the requirements of their intended/declared major program
3. Student is familiar with campus resources to help reach their academic and career goal

Student Responsibilities

- Read your Rowan student email.
- Schedule an appointment with your academic advisor at least once a semester to discuss course selection, progress toward graduation and career goals.
- Reach out for help when academic or personal challenges arise.
- Read and understand University policies and procedures, including self-registration, withdrawal deadlines, and others listed in the Student University Handbook.
- Use Rowan's online systems including the Rowan Success Network, Self-Service/Banner, GRAD, and Section Tally.
- Learn your degree requirements, benchmarks, and graduation timeline.
- Identify and create your own personal goals that are consistent with your interests and abilities.
- Utilize your campus resources as needed, including Tutoring Services, Office of Career Advancement, Counseling & Psychological Services, etc.
- Invest yourself in the educational process and take responsibility of your own decisions and actions.

Advisor Responsibilities

- Understand and effectively communicate degree requirements and University policies and procedures.
- Support students in attaining their educational and career goals.
- Refer students to appropriate campus resources.
- Provide reasonable accessibility to students for advising meetings.
- Assist students in the development of a plan for timely graduation.
