

Dublin Placements

BUSINESS/HOSPITALITY/INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

International House

International House Dublin is a member of the International House World Organisation. Its aim is to promote and guarantee high quality in language teaching and learning. Work opportunities vary from assisting with accounts receivable/payable to coordinating social activities for students at International House.

International Student Accommodations

International Student Accommodation was created with the goal of helping international students find good quality housing in Dublin during their studies. Established in 2012, we provide accommodations for students visiting Dublin from 1 week to 1 year in safe, comfortable houses or apartments. ISA is known for providing an excellent student experience with the best homestay placements or conveniently located shared apartments.

*International Student Accommodation is not affiliated with International Studies Abroad.

Appollo Language

Apollo Language Centre (Apollo), an LAL partner, is an English language school in Ireland with centres for juniors in Dublin and Cork and for young adults and adults in Dublin, with unique course features to its customers. Apollo has an international client base with key partner universities and schools across the globe.

PR/COMMUNICATIONS/MARKETING

Imperic Media

Imperic Media is a Dublin-based digital marketing agency working with clients around the globe to improve the performance of their digital channels. They plan, buy, and manage digital media for established and growing businesses who understand the value of marketing and want to improve the performance of their online channels. The intern will assist with their digital marketing efforts.

Businessgames

Businessgames develops and organizes live interactive business games for clients to maximize engagement between employees or team members. Gain valuable work experience in sales and the marketing field doing research, content creation, and managing social media platforms

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT/THEATRE

Dublin Youth Theatre

Whilst providing a safe place for the city's young people to grow, experiment, and explore who they are, Dublin Youth Theatre has introduced generations of young people between ages 14 and 22 to drama, theatre and other related arts by delivering quality creative experiences that promote artistic, personal and social development for young people in Dublin. The intern will be responsible for office administration, communication and marketing strategy, scheduling rehearsals and activities, and providing other theater production assistance.

NON-PROFIT ADMINISTRATION

Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity Ireland transforms lives by bringing people together to build homes, communities and hope. By bringing people together in true partnership they create vibrant, healthy, thriving communities. Their vision is about much more than bricks and mortar. It is about empowerment, opportunity and change for the benefit of an entire community for generations. It's about a future where all people can live in homes, communities and hope. They are part of a global family that works in more than 70 countries.