Graduate Coordinator – Volunteerism, Community Engagement & Commuter Services
Position Description
2019-2020 Academic Year

Reporting to the Assistant Director for the Office of Volunteerism, Community Engagement & Commuter Services (VCECS), the Graduate Coordinator is a 10-month graduate student position serving as a key paraprofessional member of the VCECS team.

The Office of Volunteerism, Community Engagement & Commuter Services provides programming, resources, and support to promote a Rowan community of active citizens. We work collaboratively with university faculty and community partners to design a range of curricular and co-curricular service-learning opportunities. Students who engage with service learning, volunteerism and community engagement at Rowan will reflect on meaningful volunteer experiences as they develop a lifelong commitment to their communities.

The following description addresses the general duties and responsibilities of the Graduate Coordinator position. This document does not cover all job expectations or specific procedures for completing these responsibilities. All staff will be expected to review and abide by additional policies and specific procedures described in other documents including staff manuals, as well as all local, state and federal laws.

Job responsibilities will vary based on tasks and projects that need to be accomplished and the interests of the Graduate Coordinator, but will include:

1: Programmatic Support & Development
- Coordinate all aspects of Weekly Service Opportunities program, including advertising, volunteer recruitment, community partner communication, program planning, organization, transportation, and follow-up feedback solicitation
- Maintain participation records for all program activities
- Coordinate assessment efforts for all programs and assist in the development and evaluation of student learning outcomes
- Assist in the planning, implementation and execution of “First-Year Connection: volunteerism” program
- Facilitate personal consultations with individual students as well as student groups interested in volunteer activities
- Assist: with other programs within the Division of Student Life, including but not limited to: Welcome Weekend, Homecoming, Family Weekend, etc.
