

ROWAN UNIVERSITY
OVERNIGHT SUMMER CAMP AND CONFERENCE HOUSING FORM

All individuals attending an overnight summer camp or conference at Rowan University ("University") who seek University housing are required to complete this form. University housing is a community living environment in which individuals are assigned a bed space within a designated room or suite which may include one or more roommates in an assigned bedroom or suite. Housing assignments, including space in bedrooms and suites, will be made on a same-gender basis in accordance with an individual's gender noted below.
