More About Angela

Angela Felisa Steward joined the Dean's Office in the College of Education in July 2021 as a Secretarial Assistant 2. In this role, she is responsible for the administrative support of the Associate Dean for Students and Faculty Affairs, and the Assistant Dean for Assessment and Accreditation. She also has oversight for course scheduling, faculty load maintenance, and processing personnel paperwork through the FLAC system. In December 2013, Angela began working at Rowan University's Career Management Center, which is now known as the Center for Employers & Early Talent Engagement. During her time at the Career Management Center, Angela's greatest achievement involved assisting Dr. Alicia Monroe, Assistant Director, with coordinating several Rowan special initiatives. Specifically, in working with the Rowan STEAM Academy, Rowan First Star STEAM Academy, and Cooperman College Scholars Program, she helped to identify career exploration activities for student participants, interfaced and engaged with faculty, staff, and community partners, as well as developed program guidelines, pacing guides, and data management. During her employment at Campbell Library, she was responsible for the administrative support of the Director of Public Services in addition to overseeing and managing the Student Work Study Program for Library staff. Angela is currently pursuing a degree in Psychology.
