

The National Dog Show Therapy Dog Symposium

Gerald B. Shreiber

November 19, 2019 | 8:30 a.m.–4:30 p.m.

Rowan University | Chamberlain Student Center Ballroom
201 Mullica Hill Road | Glassboro, NJ 08028

The National Dog Show Therapy Dog Symposium is a first-of-its-kind conference to share information and develop best practices among Therapy Dog practitioners, advocates and aspirants in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and Delaware.

David Frei

Rowan University is hosting the symposium in tandem with the launch of The Shreiber Family Pet Therapy Program within the University's Wellness Center.

Featured speakers include Gerald B. Shreiber, President and CEO of J&J Snack Foods Corp, David Frei, longtime therapy dog advocate and co-host of The National Dog Show on NBC, and Michele Pich, Assistant Director of the Shreiber Family Pet Therapy Program, Adjunct Professor, and Research Associate at Rowan University who has been involved in the certified therapy dog movement for 10 years.

Event registration is $35 and includes breakfast, information sessions, lunch and a post-conference reception.

To register, visit go.rowan.edu/therapydogsymposium.

Michele Pich

For more information about the event or to become a sponsor, contact:

Marie Polk, Events and Special Projects Manager, Rowan University
(856) 256-4059 | polk@rowan.edu